VENUS WORLD SCHOOLS

Academic Session-2021-22

SUMMATIVE TEST-1

Grade V   Time hour

Science   Max.Mks- 50

Q1. Choose the correct option: 5M
   A. Animals which can live both on land and in water
      a. Reptiles. b. Birds. c. Amphibia B. The involuntary actions are controlled by the
       a. Cerebellum. b. Cerebrum   c. Medulla C. The backbone consists of a.femur. b.jaw bone. c. Vertebrae D. Human beings breathe through their a.beaks. b. Lungs.   c. Gills E. Crops grown in winter season are called
      a. Kharif crops. b. Rabi crops. c. Ploughing

Q2. Fill in the blanks: 5M
   a. The heart is an ……..
   b. Do not use ……. in case of fire.
   c. A person with hydrophobia is afraid of…..
   d. ……. attracts iron objects.
   e. Insects breathe through small holes called ….

Q3. State true or false: 5M
   a. Rib cage protects our heart.
   b. Human beings breathe through their gills.
   c. Changing of ice to water is a physical change.
   d. You should talk to the driver when he is busy driving.
   e. Metal is a good conductor of heat.

Q4. Match the following: 5M

A. Fish.   a.liquid

B. Pivot joint.   b.heartbeat

C. Medulla.   c.grows in summer or rainy season.

D. Kharif crops.   d. Allows rotatory movement

E. Oil.   e.fins

Q5. Give two examples: 4M

a. Kharif crops

b. Two liquids

c. Carnivores

d. Two joints

Q6. Define the following:(Any three) 6M

a. Vertebra

b. Miscible

c. Migration

d. Agriculture

Q7. Differentiate between:(Any two). 6M

a. A solid and a gas

b. Voluntary and involuntary muscles

c. Reversible and irreversible change

Q7. Answer in one sentence: 5M

a. What is a joint?

b. Write the name of the plant which grows from stem cuttings.

c. What is germination?

d. Name two animals which breathe through their skin.

e. How many bones are there in our body?

Q8. Answer the following:(Any three) 9M

a. Why do animals need to move?

b. What are the functions of the skeleton?

c. What are the different parts of a seed?

d. With a neat diagram write a short note on the cerebrum.