

Revision 3

1. The natural environment in which an organism lives is called its-----.
2. ----- is an example for partially submerged plants.
3. Fish moves with the help of :
4. An earthworm moves by ----- and ----- it's muscles
5. A cockroach shows movement by moving it's----- legs at a time.
6. The plant body has ----- systems. They are:
7. A snail moves with the help of:
8. The animals that eat dead animals are called-----
9. Tall plants with single firm stem are called-----
10. ----- and ----- are examples of bottom dwellers.
11. A camel stores fat in the ----- on its back
12. The animals which can live both on land and in water are called-----.
13. A body with narrow tapering ends is called -----
14. A medium sized plant with a hard ,thin and brown stem is a ---
15. The arrangement of veins in a leaf is called -----