

KALPAVRUKSHA MODEL SCHOOL

Notes

Topic: The Case of Natty Nat

Date:17.8.21

III. Fill in the blanks:

- 1) A three letter word for a Swiss river is Aar.
- 2) Nobody knew that a boy was the mastermind behind the town's police force.
- 3) Old ladies did crossword puzzles.
- 4) Natty Nat had on a grey coat with a belt at the back.
- 5) Chief Brown was Leroy's father.

IV. True or False

1. Mr and Mrs Brown and teachers called him Leroy.-true
2. He was a complete library walking around in trainers.-true
3. Newspapers printed a picture of Natty Nat.- false
- 4.The best detective was only ten years old. true
5. Leroy did not help to solve the case.-false

V.Extracts:

1.“Nobody even knows his real name.”

a) Whose real name was not known?

Ans: Natty Nat's real name was not known.

b) What is an encyclopedia?

Ans: An encyclopedia is a book or a set of books that contain information, arranged alphabetically on all branches of knowledge.

c) Was Natty Nat a real robber?

Ans: No, Natty Nat was not a real robber.

2. “Leroy, I believe you are right!”

a) Who is 'I' in the above sentence?

Ans: Mr. Brown is 'I' in the above sentence.

b) What was the right thing?

Ans: The right thing was that Mr. Dillon stole money from his own shop.

c) Who was Mr. Brown?

Ans: Mr. Brown was the Chief of policeman of Idaville.

VI. Answer the question in your own words.

1. Do you think Natty Nat was a real man or a creation of the newspapers? Why?