

Blooming Buds School

English Worksheet

Class VI

I. Underline the demonstrative pronouns and circle the demonstrative adjectives

1. That was his bitter experience in London.
2. This idea is so laughable!
3. Those trees were here forever. These are the new ones.
4. That child seems to be enjoying in the garden.
5. That is my bicycle you're riding.

II. Underline the reflexive pronouns and circle the emphatic pronouns in these sentences.

1. He has silenced himself since last year.
2. They have totally jeopardised themselves in the process.
3. The postman himself was confused about the delivery address.
4. The mind triggers itself into an endless array of worries.

5. They themselves confessed their crime.