

Sci Revision

Q Give two examples of each:-

- i solid Books chair
- ii liquids Water Milk
- iii gases Air Steam
- iv Wood Paper Door

II True or False.

- 1) Air is not matter. F
- 2) Solids have fixed shape. T
- 3) We use plastic and glass to make bottles. T
- 4) We get fresh water from river. F
- 5) Substances that dissolve in water are called insoluble in water. F
- 6) Water takes the shape of the container. T

TIP Tick the correct answer:

1) Water is commonly found in his state.

Ans liquid ✓

2) Which of the following is soluble in water?

Ans sugar ✓

3) Which of the following is used to make ornaments?

Ans gold ✓

4) Is used to make tyres, balls,
balloons.

Ans Rubber.

III Answer the following questions

Q1) What is matter

Ans Anything that has mass and occupies space called matter.

Q2) List three states of matter?

Ans The three states of matter are solid, liquids and gases.

Q3) From where do we get groundwater?

Ans We get fresh water from rain. When it rains, water fills up ponds, lakes and seas. Some rainwater goes inside the ground. We get ground water by digging wells and tube wells.

PAGE NO.:

DATE: / /

Q4 Write two uses of iron and steel?

Ans We use iron and steel to make utensils and trains.