

English

Q-I) Unscramble these words

- 1) titencex = extinct
- 2) urefort = fortune
- 3) mpromise = promise
- 4) doctro = doctor

Q-II) Underline the verbs in these sentences

- 1) The peacock is dancing in the rain.
- 2) The girls watched a movie at mall.
- 3) Bijoy drove slowly through crowded streets.
- 4) Meeta is writing a poem.

Q-III) Complete the lines.

- 1) I hear leaves dripping rain
I hear rich leaves on top
driving the poor beneath

Q-IV) Fill in the blank

- 1) When two people talk to each other, they have a conversation.
- 2) When you find or learn about something, you make a discovery.

3) A person of great intelligence is a genius

4) People of the world speak different languages

Q-II Write the meaning of the given words

1) Rarest: Most uncommon and unusual

2) ~~Harzoo~~ i sin

3) Debt: Sum of money that is owed

4) Beast: animal

Q-III Answer these questions

1) What was a pumri-bullyu? Describe in your own words?

Ans) A pumri-bullyu was an animal that was found in Africa but it is now extinct. They had no tail and sharp horns on each head. They were very shy and terrible hard to catch.

2) What was the scribe proud of?

Ans) The scribe was proud that he had never borrowed a single danka.

3) What was the scribe's greatest worry?

Ans) The scribe's greatest fear was borrowing money from the moneylender.

2-III Read these sentences and answer these questions.

"No, you know how shy I am - I had been started at"

1) Who said these words to whom?

Ans) These words were spoken by Pushmi-pullyu to monkeys.

2) What had the listeners asked the speaker to do?

Ans) The monkeys asked the Pushmi-pullyu if he would go with a polilla and put on a show in the land of Men.