

Q 2 "It wouldn't be right to prevent her from getting her afternoon nap."

a. Who is 'her' in these lines?

→ The 'her' in these lines is the poet's pet cat.

b. Do these lines show the poet's genuine concern for 'her'?

→ No, these lines do not show genuine concern for the cat because the cat would sleep anywhere if she had to. The poet sitting at home would not make any difference.

feels that the sofa is comfortable and the pillows are soft and deep.

II Reference to context.

Q 1 "So maybe I'll sit on the front porch.
Or maybe I'll just stay inside."

a. Why does the poet think of sitting on the porch?

→ The poet thinks of sitting on the porch because all his socks are too dirty and his shoes are untidy.

b. What do these lines show about the poet?

→ These lines show that the poet is too lazy and looking for reasons to stay at home and relax.

P.T.O

Lesson - 9

∴ The Weather is Perfect for running ∴

I Answer the following .

Q 1. Why does the poet decide to go for a jog in the first place ?

→ The poet decided to go for a jog in the first place because the weather is perfect for running .

Q 2. Why does the poet decide to take a stroll instead of jogging ?

→ The poet decides to take a stroll instead of jogging because he is bit ~~is~~ tired .

Q 3. What does the poet finally decide to do in the pleasant weather ? What thoughts occurs to the poet before he decides to do so ?

→ The poet finally decided to sleep in the perfect weather . The poet realizes that his socks are dirty and his shoes are untidy . He