

23/01/25

Thursday

5. The right that provides equal protection by the law → Right to equality.

III. Answer in brief.

1. What is constitution?

Ans: A constitution is the basic set of laws according to which a country is governed.

2. What are fundamental rights?

Ans: The constitution of India gives the citizen of our country some basic rights that cannot be taken away from them. These rights are called fundamental rights.

3. What are fundamental duties?

Ans: The duties listed in the constitution for the people of India are called fundamental duties.

IV. Answer in detail.

1. List the fundamental duties of the citizens of India.

Ans: Some fundamental duties are;

1) We must abide by the constitution of India.

25/11/23

Thursday

- ii) We must respect the national flag and national anthem.
- iii) We must protect public properties.
- iv) We must conserve the environment.

2. List any three goals mentioned in the Constitution of India.

Ans: The goals laid down by the constitution of India are,

- i) No unjust treatment on the basis of religion, caste or gender.

- ii) Equality in the eyes of the law.
 - iii) Respect for all in the country.
- 