

Essay - Myself

1. My name is Adarsh
2. I am 11 years old
3. I live in Belagavi city
4. I go to Good Shepherd central
School
5. I Study in class II
6. My mothers name is Madhuri
7. My fathers name is Laxman
8. My favorite game is cricket
9. My favorite fruit is mango
10. My hobby is Drawing

15/4/24

Page No.

Date.

Essay - My family

1. My name is Adarsh
2. My father's name is Laxman
3. My Mother's name is Madhuri
4. I have brother and no sister
5. My father is a Army officer
6. My mother work as a Housewife
7. My father's contact no is
915 888 7086
8. My mother contact no is
896 8777932

9. I live in a Small Family

10. My home address is Kan

17/4/24

Page No.

Date.

Le-1-The two Merchant

I Spellingi

1 farmers 11 stolen

2 towns 12 anger

3 metal 13 iron

4 buckets 14 nearby

5 manded 15 village

6 damaged 16 boxes

7 weighing 17 feared

8 scales 18 vowed

9 costly 19 percent

10 chartrous 20 cheat

17/8/24

Page No.
Date

II Fill in the blanks with correct words

1. Raja Ram and Daulat Lal were friends.
2. Daulat Lal tricked Raja Ram.
3. Daulat Lal did not believe that a hawk could cheat him.
4. Raja Ram did not bring a gift for Daulat Lal.
5. Raja Ram was not as foolish as Daulat Lal thought him to be.

18/4/24

Page No.

Date

III Answer the following

Q1. Name the two merchants.

Ans Once in a village there lived two merchants called Raja Ram and Daulat Lal.

Q2. What did Raja Ram do?

Ans Raja Ram bought rice from the farmers and sold it in a nearby town.

Q3. What did Daulat Lal do?

Ans Daulat Lal sold metal buckets and boxes in the village also mended damaged buckets.

Q4. What did Raja Ram leave his weighing scales with Daulat Lal?

Ans Raja Ram feared

Ans Raja Ram feared that his costly, enormous weighing scales would be stolen which he was away.

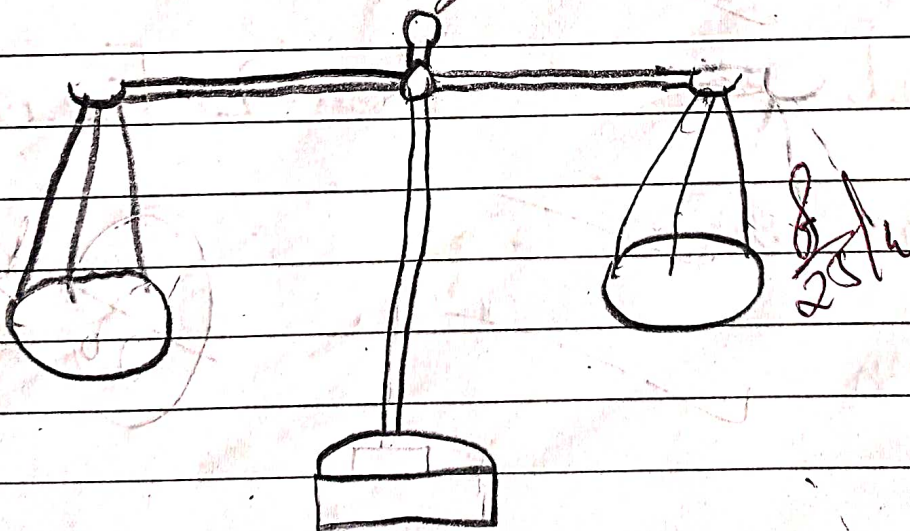

Q5. What could Raja Ram believe?

Ans Raja Ram could not believe that mice could eat scales.

Q6. What promise did Daulat Lal make?

Ans Daulat Lal returned the scales and he vowed never to cheat anyone ever again.

Activity

24/4/24

Page No.
Date.

Lc-2 O, look at the moon

I Answer the following

Q1. What is the name of poem?

Ans. The name of the poem is O look at the moon

Q2. What look like a lamp in the air?

Ans. Moon shining in the sky look like a lamp in the air.

Q3. What does the moon look like when she is smaller?

Ans. Moon looks like a bow when she is smaller.

Q4. What does the moon look like when she grows bigger?

Ans. Moon look like an O when she grow bigger.

bigger.

Q5. what is excited to see the moon?

Ans. The poet is excited to see the moon.

Q6. To whom is the poet speaking to?

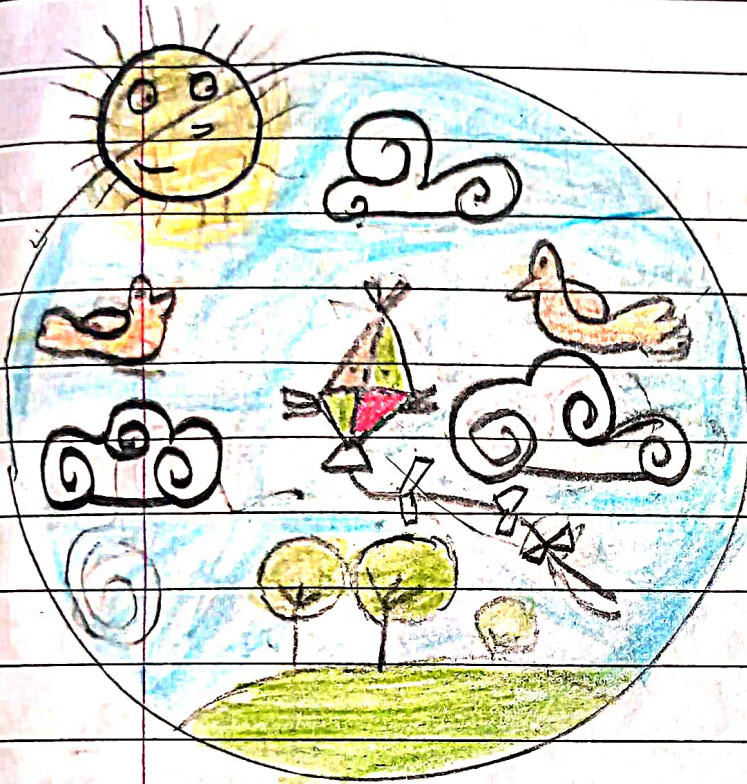

Ans. The poet is speaking to her mother.

25/11

25/4/24

Page No.
Date.

Activity

Day

Night

25/4