For questions 21 to 25, read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, a colony of frogs was traveling across a forest in search of a new pond where they could all live happily. While hopping around, two frogs fell into a deep pit. The other frogs gathered around the pit and expressed their concern over the situation. They tried saving them, but the pit was very deep, and they could not risk their lives as well. As the two frogs tried to jump out of the deep pit, the other frogs discouraged them by saying how impossible it was to jump and come out of that deep pit.

However, the two frogs initially chose to ignore the demotivating words of others and decided to keep jumping to come out of the pit. They tried very hard and put in all their efforts to come out of the pit, while the frogs watching from the top told them to give up.

Eventually, one of them got influenced by the other frogs. Tired from the struggle and discouraged by the words of the other frogs, that frog gave up and died. The other frog continued to struggle and jumped as hard as it could.

After great effort and struggle, it finally came out of the pit alive. Other frogs were surprised and asked how it managed to come out in spite of them telling it to give up. The frog explained that it is deaf and assumed that everyone was cheering for it.
