Outline of the story :-

Two Wise Goats

In a small village, there was a river with a narrow bridge over it. Two goats wanted to cross over from opposite directions. There was no space to cross the bridge together hence they started fighting.

Later the wise goat got an idea. He told to other goat, " instead of fighting and falling into river and drown, I shall lie down on the bridge and you may walk over me." The other goat walked over the wise goat and carefully crossed the bridge. Finally both goats happily crossed the bridge and moved on their way.

Moral of the story:- Think wisely and avoid Fights.
