Q1. Here is some information about houses . Write four sentences on houses.

Houses provide us with protection from heat, rain, thieves, and harsh sunlight, offering a safe and comfortable shelter. There are many different kinds of houses, ranging from small to big, catering to various needs and preferences. Houses in cities differ significantly from those in villages, reflecting the unique lifestyles and requirements of their inhabitants. Ultimately, houses are built to suit our needs, providing a cozy and comforting space for us to live and thrive.
