

1. Fill in the blanks with suitable personal pronouns:

- (1) Are you going for a picnic? They were asking for an answer.
- (2) It is a tame animal. It performs well in the circus.
- (3) They are least bothered about their things.
- (4) Have they gone to America? Where are their belongings?
- (5) She knows me very well. I am talking with her.
- (6) Ramesh is the head boy of the school. The teachers have also made him the games captain.
- (7) Reena and Tina are painting a picture. Their hand is very steady. They have sold many paintings to them.

2. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate pronouns that are given in the brackets:

(she, he, it, I, you, we, they, them, our, their, its)

- (1) Isha, Gayatri and I have done the project. We have to collect our shield for standing first.
- (2) Either a new bat or a new ball is its need. We must arrange for it.
- (3) Neither ice-cream nor juice has been served to the guests. It will be served to them shortly.
- (4) Every actor and every actress has performed their part well.
- (5) Subash and Manisha are best friends. They always go out together.
- (6) Neither he nor his friends are having their lunch.
- (7) The class was held responsible for its activities.
- (8) Rita contributed for Teacher's Day. she has collected a lot of money.
- (9) Those papers are mine. They are lying on the table.
- (10) Bharat is a handsome boy. He drives to college daily.
- (11) Who am I?
- (12) The crowd and the mob sent their demands to the owner.
- (13) Where are you?
- (14) He and Surendra have many talents.