Std 5

Answer the following questions

1) What is a software?

Ans – Software is a set of programs designed to perform a well defined functions.

2) Write the types of software.

Ans – a) system software b) application software

3) Write the types of system software.

Ans – a) Operating system b) Language processor c) Utility software

4) Write the names of the operating system

Ans – Windows, Linux, Android, Mac Os

5) Write the names of language processor.

Ans - Compiler and interpreter are the language processor.

6) What is an Anti-virus?

Ans – An anti-virus software is used to prevent, scan, detect, delete virus from computer.

7) Write the types of application software.

Ans - General purpose application software b) customise application software

8) What is language processor?

Ans – Language processor is a system software that converts human readable language into machine language and vice versa.