

HVV
14/6/25

-: Favourite Community Helper :-

★ Teacher -

My favourite teacher is Mrs. Indu Kumbhar. She is my class teacher. She teaches me maths. She is very kind and friendly. She is very intelligent. She works hard. She never scolded me. She takes care of me and my friends. She also teaches me good habits. She teaches us everything in easy way. I am very proud of my teacher. I love my teacher.

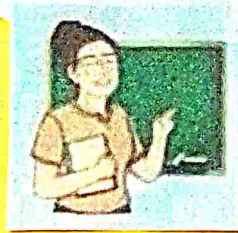

★ Policeman -

Policeman is a government servant. He is a strong and healthy man. He wears a smart khaki uniform. He keeps a small stick on his hand. He always carries a gun with him. He has to maintain law and order. He has to work day and night.

Our life and property are safe because of the policeman. His duty is to catch thieves and bad people.

We should always respect the policeman. Jay Hind, Satyamev Jayate.

* favourite community helper *

Teacher

Policeman

Doctor

Farmer

-! Favourite Community Helper :-

* Doctor -

Doctor works in a Hospital. doctor is like a God to us. He gives medicine and injections. He takes care of his patients. He saves people lives.

Doctor smiles and speak nicely. he does not shout on his patients. Doctor gives advise to people for their health. We should always respect the doctor. I love doctors very much.

* Farmer -

A farmer lives in a village. He lives simple and honest life. He gets up early in the morning. He goes to the field with his cows. He grows food and feed all of us. He works hard to grows food and feeds. He also works in rain.

They are great friends of the country. He return home after sunset. My father is also a farmer. I love all farmers. We should always respect the farmers.

HW
14/6/25

Indian -: postal stamps :-

HW
14/6/25

* post office -

post office is a very useful department for public. It is located in every part of india. It is the cheapest mode of communication. It is used to send and receive letters, money orders and parcels etc. Here the postman, postmaster, clerk and peon are works.

* Stamps - postal stamps are the little pieces of coloured paper that you stick on your letters to show the post office you have paid to have them delivered to their destination. It was issued in 1840 and showed the head of the monarch of the time queen Victoria.

* postman -

The postman is a government servant. He works in post office. He wears a khaki uniform. He always carries a bag with him. He comes bicycle. He delivers letters, money orders and parcels to us. He is regular and punctual. He works from morning to evening.

We must be kind and good to him.