

Game Activity

Fun-based Learning

Identify the places in the following pictures where computers are being used.

HW

Office

school

shooting

Bank

HW

Project Work

Project-based Learning

In your school, computers are used for doing many tasks at various departments. Make a list of all these places along with the kinds of tasks for which computers are used in these departments.

Computer Labs - Teaching computer skills, coding.

Principal's office - overall school management.

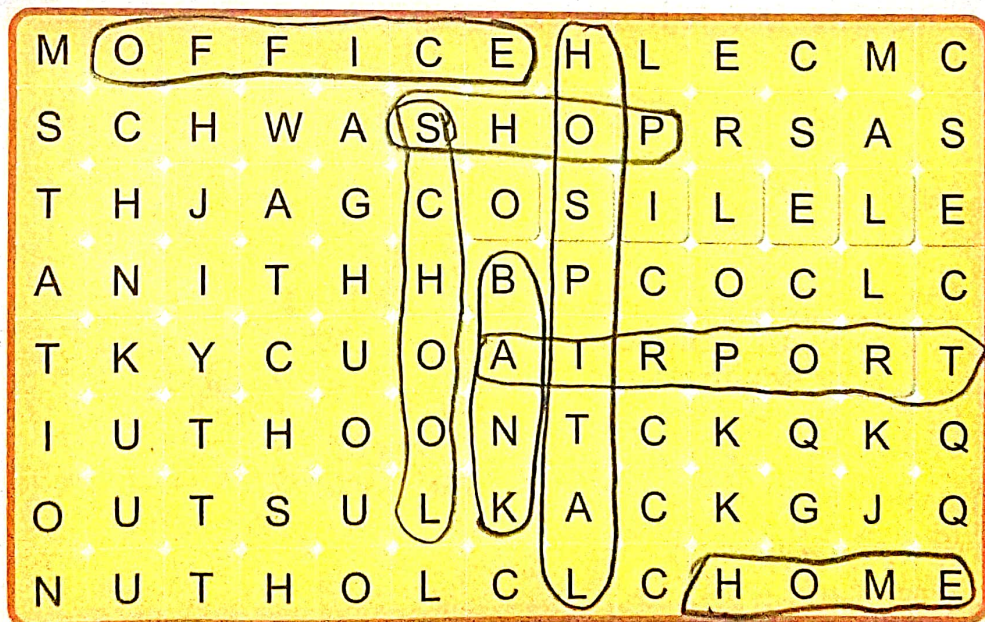

Music department - music composition and editing.

Administrative Office - admissions, fees, managing student records.

Puzzle

Observational Skills

In the given puzzle, find seven places where computers are used.

Group Discussion

Communication