

The Honest Woodcutter

When a woodcutter accidentally dropped his axe into a river, a fairy appeared, offering him golden and silver axes. He politely refused, explaining he only wanted his simple axe. Impressed by his honesty, the fairy rewarded him with all three axes, proving that honesty is valued.

Moral: Honesty is always rewarded.

The Helpful Squirrel

Once upon a time, in a cozy forest, lived a helpful squirrel named Sam. Sam always shared his nuts with his friends, making everyone happy.

Moral: Sharing is caring.

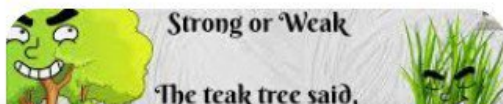

Moral Stories in English for Class 1

Visit >

Images may be subject to copyright. Learn More

 Share

 Save

Discover

Search

Collections

STORY

The Lost Necklace

Maria lost her grandmother's precious necklace. She searched everywhere and asked for help. With her friends, they found it in a flower pot. Maria learned that asking for help can lead to wonderful teamwork and solutions.

Moral: It's okay to ask for help.

The Kind Princess

Princess Lily, with a heart full of kindness, decided to share her toys with the village children. They laughed and played together, creating bonds of friendship. The happiness spread, making the kingdom a joyful place. Lily learned that sharing her treasures brought her more joy than keeping them.

Moral: Sharing makes happiness grow.